

DEADLINE EXTENSION
CALL FOR PAPERS
LATIN AMERICAN JOURNAL OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT
LAJED No. 44 - SECOND SEMESTER 2025

Journal indexed to LATINDEX, SCIELO,
REPEC-IDEAS AND CROSSREF

The Economics Department and the Institute of Socio-Economic Research (IISEC) at the Bolivian Catholic University (UCB), invite researchers to submit academic articles of interest in Economics for the 44nd edition of the LAJED Journal.

The papers must be unpublished and of academic-scientific rigor.

SENDING ARTICLES AND DOCUMENTATION

Original articles must be submitted from July 5th, 2025 until July 31th, 2025, accompanied by the signed good practice commitment, which can be downloaded at information for authors from the website. These two documents should be uploaded to the sending system of the journal.

EDITORIAL POLICY

People interested can download our editorial policy here or request it via e-mail at lajed@ucb.edu.bo.

EVALUATION

The papers received will be first reviewed by the editor to consider: plagiarism and relevance of the article according to the guidelines established in the Editorial Policy. Subsequently, accepted papers will undergo double-blind peer review evaluation. This arbitration process is in charge of the journal's Internal Editorial Committee and the International Editorial Committee (a process supported by the Bolivian Academy of Economic Sciences and the Bolivian Society of Economists). The approved papers will be published in the 44nd edition of the LAJED Journal, to be presented in November 2025.
